both highly entertaining and instruc-tive.

The charming personality of the speaker and her vivid and racy ac-count of personal adventures added to the pleasure afforded by the excellent photographs from Mr. Hovey's camera. Mr. Hovey is a geologist and curator of the Natural History museum in New York. In Mexico the congress attended by geologists and delegates from various colleges lasted for two weeks, but the party spent several more weeks visitmen during the afternoon and thrown over the wall by the riverside where they can be cleaned. The raifroad track was covered to the depth of several feet, and it was impossible to reach the freight shed.

Many Telephones in Building.

The fire caused the discontinuance of 43 telephones, there being a branch exchange in the Boston store, while the others were distributed in the leased for five years. At the end of
